

Professor Shyam Sunder was a first Director The Millstein Center for Corporate Governance and Performance at Yale University and is a world-renowned experimental economist and accounting theorist. His research contributions include financial reporting, dissemination of information in security markets, statistical theory of valuation, and design of electronic markets. He is a pioneer in the fields of experimental finance and experimental macroeconomics. He has published five books and more than 140 articles in leading journals of accounting, economics, and finance, as well as in popular media.