

JPMorgan - We're recruiting now !

Maintaining a constant flow of new graduate talent is fundamental to our continued success in our Operations, Finance & Business Management and Technology divisions here at JPMorgan. We dedicate a considerable amount of resource to finding and attracting our future talent, and we can promise you a career that will stimulate, reward and motivate you like no other.

JPMorgan is currently recruiting top graduates from any discipline to join their expanding across their network of UK offices. If you're looking for a career with exceptional training and development, personal recognition, professional fulfillment, and the opportunity to make an impact with like minded people, this is where you need to be.

Visit jpmorgan.com/careers

Application and Interview Skills Seminar

How to beat the competition

JPMorgan will be coming on campus soon to help you better prepare for the application and interview process. How should you fill out an application form? What should you do and say in an interview? Getting past the application screen is the first hurdle, so you will get some hints and tips on how to fill out application forms from the people who read them first hand. The interview process doesn't need to be as daunting as you may think, in this session you will receive information on the do's and don'ts of interviews and a helpful insight into some techniques. We look forward to seeing you there!

Date: 8th November

Location: Politechnika Warszawska

Please register now: Polish_Recruitment@jpmorgan.com