Contents

The Contributors .............................................................................................................. 7
Introduction .................................................................................................................. 11

Part I: Relief and Reconstruction .................................................................................. 13

Rights and Refuge in Kakuma: An Inquiry into the Management of Humanitarian Assistance in Protracted Refugee Situations in Africa ........ 15
Annabel Mwangi

International Agencies and the Relief-Development Continuum:
Shelter and Reconstruction in Bosnia and Herzegovina ........................................ 33
Lynette Basha

Part II: Facilitating Repatriation:
Problems with the Process of Return ........................................................................ 65

The Conditions of Just Return: State Responsibility and Restitution for Refugees ......................................................................................... 67
Megan Bradley

Following Repatriation: The Beginning of Homelessness? ............................... 105
Tania Ghanem

Part III: Immigration and Asylum ............................................................................... 139

Asylum and Refugee Protection after September 11:
Towards Increasing Restrictionism? ............................................................................ 141
Monica Zanchettin

The Social Implications of Temporary Protection in Light of the Imperative of Return: A Study of European Policy ................................. 181
Valeska Onken

The Efficacy and Justifiability of Policies to Disperse Asylum Seekers:
A Case Study of Dispersal under the UK’s Immigration and Asylum Act of 1999 .......... 217
Sarah-Jane Savage